

Art RIOS, Esq., is an experienced lawyer at Rios Immigration Law Firm. He obtained his JD from Stetson University College of Law. Arturo is Board Certified in immigration and Naturalization Law Stetson University Florida Bar Ad a leading authority in the field, Arturo founded the Central Florida American Immigration Association Chapter, where the attorneys have served as elected members of the board for decades. His practice entails defending immigrants in deportation cases in all Florida Immigration courts, filling Motions to Reopen and Reconsider in all the Immigration Courts in the United States. His practice currently delivers solutions to complex immigration issues for clients worldwide. Arturo is a publisher and well-known presenter on subjects related to deportation and immigration litigation. He is fluent in Filipino and Spanish. Rios Immigration Law Firm is a well-known law firm in ST Petersburg, Florida. Their team provides clients with a multigenerational and compassionate quality of legal support.