

Christine J. Alden is a shareholder at Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney where she is based in their Miami office. Christine is a Past President of AILA South Florida and has served on the AILA South Florida Board in various Officer and Director roles from 2013 to 2021. Christine remains active in AILA South Florida as Chair of the Congressional Committee and Vice-Chair of Budget. Additionally, she has been appointed to the AILA National Annual Conference Committee and the Distance Learning Committee for the 2022-23 term. She has served on AILA National's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee for the last two years. Some of the previous positions held by Christine within AILA South Florida, include Chair of the Budget Committee, Chair of the Chapter's Annual Conference, National Day of Action Coordinator, Vice-Chair of Customs and Border Protection Liaison Committee, Vice-Chair of Diversity & Inclusion Committee, UPL Liaison Co-Chair and the Practice Management Co-Chair.

She is a graduate of Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law, where she was the Research Editor of the Law Review. She attended college at the University of Florida and earned a Bachelor of Science in Finance. She has dedicated her practice solely to immigration law since 1996 and is a frequent speaker on immigration.

Christine was born in the United Kingdom of British and Jamaican parents and has lived in both the UK and Jamaica as well as in Texas and Florida. Christine is also a Past President and Chairwoman of the British American Business Council of Miami (BABC) where she remains a Director. In 2022, Christine was recognized as a leading Immigration attorney in Florida by Chambers USA.