

John GIHON is a partner with the law offices of Shorstein, Lasnetski & Gihon and runs the firm's immigration practice in Orlando, Florida. He focuses on removal defense and federal court litigation and is Board Certified by the Florida Bar in Immigration and Nationality Law. John is the vice chair of the Florida Bar Board Certification Committee and is the Chapter Chair for the AILA Central Florida Chapter. John was previously a Senior Attorney with the Immigration and Customs Enforcement and an Assistant State Attorney in Florida. John received his Bachelor's and Juris Doctor degrees from the University of Florida, both with honors.