

Biography

Rebeca Sanchez-Roig, Esq.

SANCHEZ-ROIG
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Rebeca Sánchez-Roig is a former Deputy Chief Counsel who spent 17 years as a federal prosecutor with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement. She represented the United States government in removal proceedings including political asylum, adjustment of status, cancellation of removal, human smuggling, terrorism, persecutors, Russian organized crime, sexual predators, drug traffickers, and other special interest cases. Ms. Sánchez-Roig managed federal court cases, including habeas corpus litigation, petitions for review, and federal torts actions. She served as liaison between the United States Attorney's Office, Office of Immigration Litigation, Agency programs, and federal operational units. Ms. Sánchez-Roig was also the designated Presidential Pardon attorney responsible for rendering the Agency's position on requests for pardons submitted by criminal non-citizens under the Executive Pardon Program. Prior to joining the federal government, Ms. Sánchez-Roig was a Business and Finance Associate with Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, LLP focusing on securities and banking at a national and international level. She was also a Corporate and Real estate associate with Zuckerman, Spaeder, Taylor & Evans, LLP concentrating on multinational business and finance, as well as intellectual property and copyrights. Ms. Sánchez-Roig's years of experience as a federal prosecutor coupled with her background in business and finance uniquely position her to represent immigration clients in both the removal and employment contexts. Sánchez-Roig graduated magna cum laude from Syracuse University College of Law with a J.D. in 1990. She holds a Masters in Fine Arts (1984) and Bachelors in Fine Arts (1980) from Florida Atlantic University. She is admitted to practice in Florida, and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. She is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. Rebeca Sánchez-Roig has been featured in the media, providing legal commentary. She is available to serve as an expert presenter, panelist and/or educator at immigration conferences, law school clinics or community events.