

Attorney Amanda WATERHOUSE is a graduate of Sam Houston State University and the University of Houston Law Center. She has been licensed since November of 2006 and practicing immigration law since 2007. Ms. Waterhouse is a founding partner of Waterhouse Dominguez & Strom, PLLC, which opened in May of 2021. Her previous experience includes 12 years at Reina & Bates Immigration & Nationality Law, where she rose to the position of senior associate prior to her departure, and two years at Gonzalez Olivieri, LLC, where she served as Supervising Attorney and Head of Litigation until departing to found her own firm. Ms. Waterhouse was honored by H Texas Magazine as one of Houston's top lawyers in both 2019 and 2021. She was also named a Rising Star by Super Lawyers in 2021 and named one of the Top Young Attorneys in Texas by Texas Monthly Magazine in April of 2021. She is a frequent speaker at conferences and regular contributor to the State Bar of Texas Immigration Law Section "Immigration Bulletin" where she writes the quarterly update on new Fifth Circuit cases.