

Jordan E. Dollar is President of The Dollar Law Firm with offices in Miami, FL and Detroit, MI. Jordan works as an Adjunct Clinical Professor at the FIU College of Law. He was previously “of counsel” to Adorno & Yoss, LLP and worked as the Director of Detention Programs at Catholic Legal Services. He is currently President of the Board of Directors for Catholic Legal Services.

Jordan’s immigration practice consists of representation of individuals through all aspects of the immigration process, including removal proceedings and appeals. His clients include high net-worth individuals, entrepreneurs, and creatives seeking business visas along with individuals seeking family-based petitions. He previously served as legal counsel for an EB-5 Regional Center in Miami, FL. The Michigan office represents medical providers in civil litigation disputes throughout southeast Michigan.

In 2019, Jordan was named a Super Lawyer Rising Star in the field of immigration. In 2013, he was named a Top 40 under 40 Outstanding Attorney for Miami-Dade County. In February 2015, the FIU College of Law Alumni Association recognized Jordan for contributions to the community.